

Society

Parties
Mrs. F. G. Romaine entertained Thursday in her home, 408 North Main street, honoring Misses Maxon and Kaudon, national Delphian society organizers who are here. Guests were members of the Delphian chapter of which Mrs. Romaine is president. The guests were enjoyed and luncheon served. Cakes and favors of pink and white were presented each guest. At bridge, Mrs. F. W. Dye was the honors. Guests were Mesdames Roy Jackson, Lila M. Hildreth, F. W. Dye, C. M. Williams, J. E. Smith, Newt R. Graham, W. R. Smith, H. A. Sartori and O. G. McCall.

The eighth annual banquet of the Phi Delta fraternity of Tulsa university was held in the hotel Tulsa Friday last week. The first color was blue and white, decorated the room and lavender corsages were given as guest favors. The guests were served with a unique menu. Included in the special menu were: tender neophyte soup, dark brown mystery, roll your own, tips from slams, best society, heads, brains, sauce, Phi Delta paraffin, orange, brew and final. Earl Jones was toastmaster and Otto C. Brewer, a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity was an honor guest of the occasion. H. Allen Dixon, president of the fraternity, made the first welcome. Roy Fitch gave the response. Harry Miller's toast was "The Future." Fred Martin gave a selected reading. Otto Brewer talked on "Fraternity." Hawley Kerr on "Thoughts Upon Leaving," and the program was brought to a close by all singing and singing the Phi Delta song. The guest list included Misses Clavin, Bryan, Boatright, W. Brown, Edna Olliphant, Katherine Murphy, Thelma Lee, Sylvia Kent Hall, Mollie Lou Stokess, Mildred Kaiser, Lucy Mae Marquis, Helen Pulling, Nellie Engstrom, Thelma Harrison, Margaret Corbin, Louise Williams, Louise Oakes, Lilla Miller, Ruth Gordon, Katharine Patton, Leona Britton, Lilian Randall, Geneva Strahl, Eunice Owens, Estelle Rowley, Betty Hunt, Leona Strimphorn, Lillian Russell, Paul Lewis, Janice Hickey, Agnes Lamb, Janita Jones, Lucile Berlin, Maudie R. Allen Dixon, H. Douglas, Kate Hawley Kerr, Harold Halkom, Edna Witty, Conrad Robinson, Elma Ranta, Tom Williams, Brooks Hartman, Carleton Cunningham, Tracy Doty, Ralph Lamb, Floyd Craft, Harold Jones, Silas S. Davis, Paul Martin, Maurice Gordon, Joyce Hurdley, Conn. Roach, Leighton Avery, Homer Mauldin, John Thomas, Cecil Rowley, Stanton Rowley, Baptiste Shummons, William E. Nott, Ammon White, Dr. J. M. Gordon, E. Earl Jones, Charles Kock, Hugh Perry, May Fleck and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fleming.

Weddings
The recent wedding of Miss Cecil Little and Mr. J. A. Simpson, pastor of the bride, and Rev. Phillip Davis, father of the groom, officiated using the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. The color motif of pink and white was used in the decorations. The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of palms, ferns and smilax, and on either side floor baskets of white snapdragons added beauty to the scene. Following the ceremony an informal reception and luncheon was held at the bride's home, the guests being the bridal party and the out-of-town guests. Later in the afternoon Mr. Davis and his bride left for Tulsa, Okla., where they will reside.
Mr. Davis is an attorney and he and his charming bride will form an attractive addition to the younger married circles of the city.

Clubs
Cherokee chapter of Delphians will meet Monday at the Community house at 2 o'clock.
Tulsa Woman's club will hold its open meeting with Mrs. Arthur Craver on Monday, Mrs. C. L. Goodale will have charge of the program.
The Tuesday Book club will give its annual spring luncheon in the Country club this week.
The Monday night Bridge club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lambert as hosts.
Mrs. Philip Ellsworth of Kansas City, active in the work of the National Federation of Women's clubs and former president of the American Association of University Women will speak here on Saturday afternoon, May 6, at the Y. W. C. A. and will be the guest of Mrs. Fann Freeborn while in the city.

Tiny Miss Who Is Rival to Pavlova

—Photo by Tipton.

Little Miss Gena Cadman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle V. Cadman of Sunset Drive, who danced before the Rotarians at their banquet Tuesday evening and again at the dancing party given by members of the U.S. A. club at the Country club on Thursday evening.

can Association of University Women will speak here on Saturday afternoon, May 6, at the Y. W. C. A. and will be the guest of Mrs. Fann Freeborn while in the city.

Members of the Ecumenical club gave their annual spring luncheon on Wednesday which was an event of much interest to club members and special friends.

The Just-a-More luncheon-bridge club meets Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Norton.

Mrs. Charles B. Johnson of 519 West Ninth street will entertain women of the Thirteenth division of the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Spring club will give a picnic lunch at Masonic hall on Wednesday when all members of Aaba Court are invited.

Tulsa chapter U. D. C. will not meet in regular session on Tuesday as scheduled, but have postponed their meeting on account of the illness of the president, Mrs. Harold A. Wakefield.

The Nellie Leonard Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet Thursday, May 4, with Mrs. H. C. Connor, associate hostesses being Mesdames G. P. Green, M. C. Huling, W. L. Hanna, G. W. Kneeling, P. S. Reagan, M. B. Floesher, W. B. Blair, G. E. Burford, and Mrs. Charles H. Yust. The leader will be Mrs. Charles F. Farrer and the yearly mite box opening will be a feature of the program.

The Utopia club meets Wednesday with Mrs. C. J. Yountman, 122 North Layton street.

The Altruistic club will entertain the Good Will club of Sapulpa with a theater party on May 3, followed with a luncheon in the Coffee Cup.

The Aheloka club met with Mrs. D. C. Turner on Wednesday in the home of Mrs. H. P. Hopson. In the election of officers, the following were named to serve the ensuing year: Mrs. Ira Allison, president; Mrs. D. C. Turner, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Mills, treasurer; Mrs. Forrest Welch, secretary; Mrs. Fred Sieber, historian; Mrs. T. E. Roder-

SEIDENBACH'S

Main at Fifth—Mayo Building

The dress event of the season. Practically as many distinct styles as there are dresses.

The four dresses pictured give you some idea of the marvelous collection offered in this sale.

A Special Purchase and Sale of 87 Daytime^A Dinner^D Dresses

Presenting Monday a collection of distinctive and exclusive dresses in a wide diversity of styles and colors—a sales event bringing values of unusual importance to those women who demand the last word in style and individuality—

The Values $75, $85 $98.50 and $125

$44

The Values $75, $85 $98.50 and $125

Elaborately beaded dinner gowns of Canton crepe, with loose panels, uneven hems, pointed tunics or draped effects. Beautiful georgette and crepe Romaine dresses for bridge and tea—either elaborately beaded or plain. Sport dresses of superior quality silk with capes of contrasting colors.

These dresses were purchased from one of the foremost makers of better dresses in America at only a fraction of the original cost of production. A careful comparison will convince you immediately of the marvelous values this great sale affords you.

Announcement
Appointments for business women after business hours for Permanent Waving
We are now using oil pads, which makes dry hair soft and glossy and also makes it possible for dried and bleached hair to be permanently waved very satisfactorily. Positively water and perspiration proof.
We guarantee all our work. The busy season is on. Appointment now.
Natural Hair Goods—the best at lowest prices.
Franco-American toilet preparations. We do the "Ritz Bob."
"The best marcel in town"—that's what they all say.
New York Hair Shop and Beauty Parlor
219 South Main—Over Renberg's Phone Osage 4312

SEIDENBACH'S

MAIN AT FIFTH—MAYO BLDG.

A Redfern Front-Lace Corset

—is especially well adapted to control the full figure and give it a graceful, clean-cut lines. We make a specialty of fitting Redferns and shall be happy to advise you about your own requirements.

Redfern Corsets
Back-Lace
Front-Lace

are designed with regard to individual types of figure, and no matter what your needs may be, we can fit you in a Redfern, which will correct the faulty lines of your figure and bring out its attractive contours.

If you wish to try on the style pictured here, it is Redfern N-704. Priced $10.00.

Others $5.00 to $25.00